

Join BWF's fabulous network of Associate Members doing great things to support the woodworking sector

BWF Associate Members are companies of all sizes who are involved in the manufacture and sale of machinery, equipment, hardware and other products, materials or services which are used by BWF members.

Joining our network gives organisations that do not manufacture or supply joinery products an opportunity to work closely with the BWF and our members on issues impacting our industry or businesses.

BWF believes that we can work together to stimulate innovation and can help promote your best innovations and training resources to the joinery sector. The aim is to ensure our members have the best possible access to new ideas, products and technology from the best providers in the business.

We have a diverse network of companies within our associate membership, and we also allow individuals who are involved in the supply of services which are used by members to join.

Woodworking in the UK – a key part of our heritage, a vital part of our future

The British Woodworking Federation (BWF) is the trade association for the woodworking and joinery manufacturing industry in the UK.

About the British Woodworking Federation

There are 700 member companies
 mostly UK manufacturers

making products such as staircases, windows, doors, furniture and architectural joinery

“Wood is the most technologically advanced material that we can build with. The Earth grows our food. The Earth can grow our homes. It’s an ethical change that we have to go through.”

Michael Green, Architect

Key benefits of BWF Associate Membership

Associate members are suppliers to the woodworking sector and form a vital and valuable part of our network. Key benefits of joining BWF include:

- A comprehensive listing on the BWF Website's extensive searchable directory of suppliers
- Full access to the members' only section of the BWF website including all members' only news, guides, information and template documents
- Access to our free-to-members technical helpline
- Opportunity to attend BWF Technical and Regional Meetings
- A free place at BWF Members' Day, attended by 150-170 joinery manufacturing members, plus substantial discounts when exhibiting at BWF events
- Regular BWF newsletters and E-news covering important topics affecting the joinery industry
- Access to Construction Products Association publications including Weekly Notes and Industry Forecasts
- An opportunity to contribute to articles and blogs for the BWF e-newsletters and website (subject to strict editorial guidelines)
- A chance to participate in the BWF Woodworking CPD programme through web content, factsheets, e-learning and seminars. We can accredit your resources with an appropriate number of CPD hours and (where applicable) host on our new e-learning academy

Associate members are also able to engage with our product schemes. In addition to core activities, BWF runs the BWF Fire Door Scheme (BWF-CERTIFIRE), The Wood Window Alliance and the BWF Stair Scheme. These are focused on raising standards through accreditation and certification, and promoting the use of timber products.

If you are interested in engaging directly in these networks too, please contact jenny.taylor@bwf.org.uk for more information or ring 0844 209 2610.
