

Introduction to Fire Doors & Third Party Accreditation Course

COURSE DURATION

The duration of the course/seminar is 3 hours. Inclusive of set up, registration, introduction, content delivery, time for questions and answers and wrap up sessions.

AIMS

To provide course/seminar members with: A basic introduction to third party certification of fire doors, what certification is and why it matters, why it is important to understand the rules and regulations surrounding fire doors and what to look for when checking fire doors.

CONTENT

The course/seminar includes:

- Introduction to fire doors
- Introduction to third party certification and accreditation of fire doors, including the BWF Certifire and the Fire Door Alliance
- The Rules and Regulations surrounding fire doors including who is responsible
- Component compatibility and maintaining certification
- Getting it right and what happens when it goes wrong
- Responsibility and management of fire doors
- Case studies to illustrate core themes and additional guidance for follow up after the course

NUMBER OF DELEGATES

Minimum of 4 and a maximum of 14 (Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have specific course requirements).

DELIVERY OPTIONS AND OUTCOMES

Delivered onsite in a training room provided by host. Successful completion of the course leads to a CPD Certificate of Achievement.

COURSE HANDOUTS

Each delegate will be issued with:

- A hard copy of the Best Practice Guide
- Gap Tester (Key-ring)

COST

The full cost for each course/seminar is as follows:

£775 Non-Member

£550 BWF Member

The price is inclusive of course handouts and certificates. There will be no additional charge for travel or subsistence.

For further information please contact the BWF on 020 7637 2646 or email firedoors@bwf.org.uk